Merger of GAY with IAY

†1079. SHRI DHARAM PAL SABHARWAL: Will the Minister of RURAL DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have merged Gramin Awaas Yojana with Indira Awaas Yojana;

(b) if so, the criteria followed for selection of the beneficiaries under this scheme in Punjab; and

(c) the district-wise details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF RURAL DEVELOPMENT (SHRIMATI SURYAKANTA PATIL): (a) to (c) No, Sir. No Scheme under the name of Gramin Awaas Yojana (GAY) was being implemented by the Ministry of Rural Development. However, some other small schemes of Rural Housing such as Innovative Stream for Rural Housing & Habitat Development, the Rural Building Centres (RBCs) and the Samagra Awaas Yojana (SAY) have been discontinued and merged with the main scheme i.e. Indira Awaas Yojana with effect from 1.4.2004. The sub-schemes i.e. Upgradation of unserviceable kutcha houses and Credit-cum-Subsidy scheme have also become a part of the Indira Awaas Yojana with effect from 1.4.2004. The selection of beneficiaries under the Indira Awaas Yojana is made from Below the Poverty Line (BPL) rural families with the approval of Gram Sabha. A minimum of 60% of the beneficiaries is selected from Scheduled Castes/Scheduled Tribes. This criteria is applicable in all State including State of Punjab.
